One Arboretum Festival

Our vision for Derby is a city where people live together and respect each other and have a shared vision for their neighbourhood.

Our aim with the One Arboretum festival was to stage an event that would bring together the many communities that live in and around the area to celebrate the strong community spirit that exists there.

I'm delighted to say that our festival attracted over 19,500 people of all ages and communities. Together, they enjoyed music and dance from around the world and took part in a wide range of activities. The feedback that we have had about the performances and activities has been excellent and this booklet shows, through photographs, how so many communities celebrated together as One Arboretum.

We couldn't have staged this event without the support and funding of our partners - Derby City Primary Care Trust, Derby City Council, Jobcentre Plus and Derbyshire Fire and Rescue Service - and the hard work of our Community Cohesion Unit in co-ordinating it.

I hope you enjoy this snapshot of One Arboretum 2008.

Fun activities and information for everyone

Our festival offered something for everyone. Children enjoyed inflatables, face painting with Sure Start and the Challenge Rammie five-aside penalty shoot-out. They could also meet Cycle Derby superheroes Shift and Sprocket and try out many unusual bikes. Many adults and children took advantage of free workshops in: African drumming, Asian dhol drumming, Bhangra/Bollywood dance and Cuban salsa.

Members of our Crime Prevention Team and other public service organisations and charities, including Derbyshire Fire and Rescue Service, Derby City Primary Care Trust, Jobcentre Plus and Supporting Others Through Volunteer Action, were on hand to provide information and advice about their services.

"The One Arboretum Festival gave us a fantastic opportunity to meet and talk to diverse communities about fire safety in the home."

Derbyshire Fire and Rescue Service

"It was a most enjoyable event - we recruited lots of volunteers."

"Derby is a great place to live - it's my home!"

"It's small enough that people can make things happen!"

"It is a helping community and I was born here."

"Derby is real! People are people - no borders to cross!"

"Derby is phat!"

'I belong to Derby'

Our 'Building bridges' programme aims to develop shared values and a sense of belonging to the city. So, a key part of the One Arboretum festival was asking people to tell us what it means to belong to Derby...

"I am born and bred Derby. It's a diverse city with many different cultures. We are proud of Derby."

"Good city, friendly people."

"I've lived on my road for 20 years. Great neighbours..."

"A welcoming city."

"Lots of variety, art and places to go."

Derby - a city where people live together and respect each other Let's celebrate together!
