It can be hard to break free...

... from domestic and sexual violence. You may be frightened, confused and not know where to turn for help. But... the Derby Family Justice Centre is here for you.

The Family Justice Centre is a new way to help women, men and their families if they are experiencing, or trying to escape from, domestic and sexual violence. This includes stalking, honour-based violence and forced marriage.

Up until now, the services designed to help victims have been located across the city. The Family Justice Centre brings all of these services straight to you – in one safe location.

“We are here for you”

“All our services together in one safe, secure location”

The staff at Derby Family Justice Centre can help with issues such as:

- domestic violence
- sexual violence
- court action against your abuser
- protection from members of your family
- housing difficulties
- keeping safe
- health
- harassment or stalking
- forced marriage
- honour-based violence

Who can help me at the Derby Family Justice Centre?

The Family Justice Centre is a base for all sorts of organisations whose staff can help you, such as domestic and sexual violence advocates, specially trained police officers, probation officers, counsellors, social workers, support workers, housing officers and legal professionals.
